Evangelicals, Catholics do not take Jesus' words, "This is my body...this is my blood" in a strictly literal sense, for they do not really believe that the bread is Jesus' body or that the wine is Jesus' blood. The literal meaning - "This bread is my body; this wine is my blood" -- is a contradiction in terms. Bread is bread, not a human body; wine is wine, not blood.

Touto(this) is a neuter demonstrative adjective. It can't modify or refer to bread, which is a masculine noun. Instead, it clearly refers to soma (body), which is a nominative neuter noun. Therefore the only possible translation in English is: "This [substance in my hands] is my body."
